

Private Day School

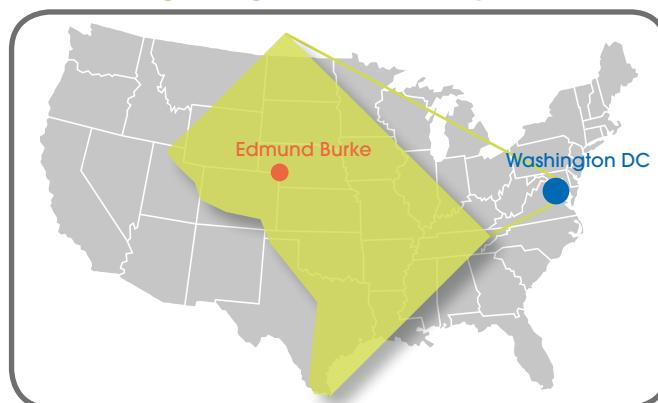

School Profile

Burke is a progressive, urban, inclusive, vibrant college-prep school for 300 students in grades 6-12. Located in the heart of Washington DC, the school offers challenging academics, world-class arts and championship sports. Students are accomplished, confident leaders who go on to well-respected colleges and successful careers.

Students at Burke are engaged in a learning environment that is small in size but diverse in its members. Group discussions are rigorous, lively, respectful and thought-provoking. Studies are organized around problems, projects and questions because facts and skills are most powerful when they are given a context and a purpose. The school incorporates research and hands on activities to encourage students to think critically and creatively.
