

Private Day School

School Profile

Seton Catholic Central High School is a co-educational, Catholic day school. Catholic high schools are the preferred choice of international students and their families, given the academic rigor which Catholic schools enjoy. Students are immersed in academic courses with English speaking peers, including physical education, art, band and choir. Smaller class sizes and ratio of student to teacher magnifies the learning environment and allows each student to reach their maximum potential. Advanced Placement (AP) and College Advancement Program (CAP) Courses provide college credit in a high school setting for Juniors and Seniors.
