

Private Boarding School

School Profile

St. Bernard's Catholic School (SBCS) was established 1912 by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange. SBCS is beautifully located between the Pacific Ocean and the Redwoods of Northern California. SBCS is situated in a safe residential neighborhood close to shopping and restaurants. SBCS offers an extensive list of Honor and Advanced Placement courses, and provides students with small class sizes. Approved by the University of California, the school's English Immersion Class provides international students with the opportunity to improve verbal, reading and writing skills.
