

Private Boarding School

School Profile

Founded in 2000, Windermere Preparatory School is an independent, coeducational, non-sectarian college preparatory school educating students from grades pre-kindergarten through twelve. Boarding accommodation is offered for students Grades 8 through 12. The school is located on a forty eight acre campus in southwest Orlando. WPS is the first private school in Central Florida to offer the International Baccalaureate Degree Program! WPS's school administrators and faculty are highly professional, committed, knowledgeable, and are recognized as a critical part of a strong education. The School community grows out of strong, open communication between administration, faculty, parents, students, and the community at large.

Dormitories and Student Residences

Students in the Residential program live in spacious houses in the surrounding villages. Students share comfortable bedrooms, typically two or three to a room. The houses have a family room, recreation room, meeting/study room, and a light meal kitchen and breakfast nook for the residents to share. Each house has a live-in Housemaster who supervises the residents and is available to assist them with homework and student life.
